

The January Stated Meeting of the North Kenwood Neighborhood Association
Tuesday, January 18, 2022, Flying Boat Brewery Garden

Neighborhood Members Present: James Brownlee, Steven Herzfeld, Haley Kaiser, Deidre Kurnett, Stephen Murray, Cary Robertson, Dane Kuplicki

The meeting was called to order at 7:12 p.m. by Steven Herzfeld.

The minutes for November and December will be up for approval at the February meeting.

Guest Speaker: John Vitale of Vitale Bros Muralists spoke. His team is very excited about the upcoming 13th Ave N project. Anyone can provide input to his team for color themes/suggestions for the 'flora and fauna'. Also volunteer can step up to work with team for stage of color filling. Videos on progression may be recorded to add to the website.

Police Department Update: Officer Ozzie and Ofcr Lauren Pilkenton are partnering CSO for North Kenwood. Ozzie did the report for the month. Our neighborhood has realized drop in every crime stat. Last month, one vehicle burglary; one residential burglary for an unoccupied home.

Treasurers Report: We currently have $2415.79 in our account. Additional $775.00 in an account which is a donation from our VP's employer.

Old Business Grant Funding, paint for mural will begin next several weeks. Pet honor/memorial squares are available for TBD dollar amount donation.

Annual Booker Creek Park Cleanup set for Saturday, March 19. (pending bridge replacement)

New Business Next City Matching Grant. Steven shared we need to move on this for timing reason. Suggestion was beautification project. Idea floated for 28th St N street tree planting. Alternate ideas, landscaping the 3 North Kenwood neighborhood signs; gazebo in pocket park; up lighting trees. Specific details on next project will be discussed at next general meeting in February.

Annual Pancakes on the Porch will be February 19 at 9 am at Kaiser/Herzfeld residence on 31st St N. This event will include a plank for fundraising.

2022 General meetings will alternate with social events every month beginning March/April

The meeting was adjourned at 7:52p.m. by Steven Herzfeld.

Respectfully Submitted,
James Brownlee
